April 2006

Rev. Dr. Bob Smith - Interim Pastor
Rev. Dr. John R. Harland - Parish Associate

Congratulations to our graduating seniors who will be recognized during our 11 a.m. service on May 21st.

Many of our 2006 graduates have represented FPC through mission work in our community, our state, across the state line and across the United States border! As a congregation we can be exceptionally proud of our graduates who have distinguished themselves as members of the band, honor roll, student government, athletics, debate and various other school activities. "After school jobs" are pretty common for many of our young people. That coupled with school, family, social obligations and FPC activities (not to mention dating) keeps our young folks pretty busy, yet many have been actively engaged in the weekly offerings of FPC youth programs. Hopefully many of you will be able to join in the recognition of our graduating Seniors and take the opportunity to congratulate each one!!

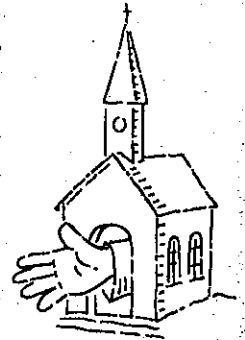

Seniors/Parents - please notify the church office (261-3837) to ensure we don't inadvertently miss any student.

Take-Stock-in-Youth will kick off in mid-May! This is one way interested adults can support the youth program by "buying into" the "Youth Company". Investors will be invited to an "end-of-summer event" in order to learn the outcome of their contribution!!

A Welcoming Place

One of our newly elected elders told his fellow officers that he and he wife chose First Presbyterian Church of Fernandina Beach as their church home because of the warm welcome they received on their first Sunday and each Sunday thereafter.

Someone looking for a new church visited various congregations. The person sat near the front, walked to the rear of the service, then walked back to the front and rear again before leaving. The church's friendliness was measured on a point system:

- 10 points for a member's smile
- 10 points for a greeting from someone close by
- 100 points for an exchange of names
- 200 points for a personal invitation to the coffee hour
- 1000 points for an introduction to another church member
- 2000 points for an invitation to meet the Pastor

The seeker reported no church scored higher than 200 points. We want our church to continue to score much higher as we enter the summer months. Thank you for being a warm, welcoming congregation.

Minute for Mission

Habitat for Humanity is our for Humanity International Minute for Mission for the month of May. Habitat 1 (HFHI) is a Christian inspired ministry, though all people are welcome. It is headquartered in Americus, Georgia, and dedicated to the elimination of substandard housing in the world. Nassau Habitat for Humanity (NGFH) is an affiliate of HFHI, chartered to carry out its work in Nassau County. They are a Florida corporation – independent, locally governed, not-for-profit, and a federally qualified charity for tax-deductible donations. Simple, basic homes are built for families in need of decent housing using mainly volunteer labor and donated funds.

Habitat homes are sold at cost – not given – to qualified families through a no-interest mortgage issued by NHFH. They began in 1993 with one home and now plan to build three homes per year. Currently, they are building their 18th home. They raise their funds locally and these funds go 100% into land and home construction. Homes are built using volunteers, supported by licensed professionals as required. Skilled volunteer construction supervisors manage their efforts and provide for training of new volunteers. Workdays are Wednesday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. New volunteers are always welcome and construction experience is not required. Interested in helping? Please contact NHFH at the address below:

Nassau Habitat for Humanity

Phone: (904) 277-0600

P.S. Keep recycling for NHFH – All proceeds from their recycling program are used to fund their new houses. Their aluminum can bins are everywhere. Spent printer ink cartridges can be brought to their office or mailed to them. Newspapers, magazines and aluminum cans can be brought to our special bins located behind North Jax Recycling at Lime and South 8th in Fernandina Beach.

MAC News

Calling all MACs to a delicious lunch on May 18th. Donna is cooking for our 2nd Annual Low Country Boil. It could be a struggle to make your shrimp and cocktail sauce come out even! Please come to JTH by 11:30 a.m. for a brief meeting before lunch.

The cost is $12. Deadline for sign-up in the church office is Friday noon, May 12th.

In June we will have a Dutch Treat Lunch at one of the local restaurants. Be thinking about where you would like to eat. We'll decide at the May luncheon.

New Learning Opportunity

On April 30th, the Faith and Friends class began a new Bible study that will continue for seven weeks on Sunday mornings at 9:50 a.m. This Bible study is based on the book Abraham, A Journey to the Heart of 3 Faiths by Bruce Fieler. This compelling, contemporary study compares Islam, Judaism, and Christianity, all of which claim the patriarch Abraham as the father of their faith. This study will add understanding to the long-standing roots of tension in the Middle East.

Mission Thank You

Fred Meiners, Executive Director of Seamark Ranch, writes

"As the new director of Seamark Ranch, I want to say "Thank You" for your generous support of our efforts to establish a ministry that will provide a nurturing Christian home for boys and girls in need.

We appreciate your prayers as we work to bring your investment to fruition."

Thanks, Choir!

Solving The DaVinci Code
Tuesdays - May 2nd thru May 30th
12 p.m.-1 p.m.

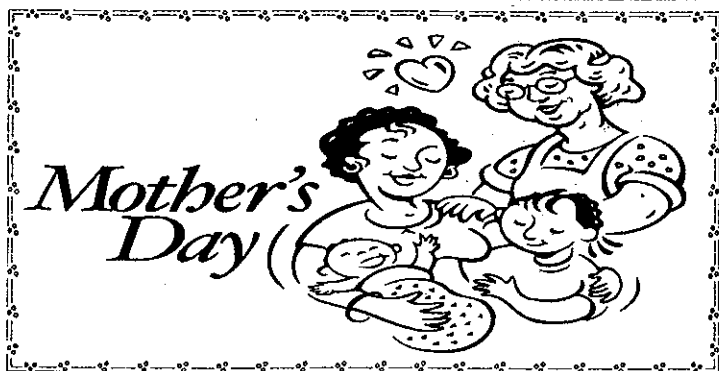

More than 40,000,000 readers of The DaVinci Code have been led into a mysterious world of conspiracy, secret codes, and historical documents hidden for as many centuries as the Christian church has existed. In this thriller presented as a historical novel, the author raises intriguing questions, such as:

- Who was Jesus?
- Has there been a conspiracy through the years to hide certain truths about Jesus?
- Was Jesus married to Mary Magdalene?
- Did they have a child?
- Are some of their descendants alive today?
- Are the documents of the New Testament reliable accounts of his life and ministry?
- Who compiled the Bible as we have it today?
- Why were some documents included and others excluded?
- What is fact and what is fiction in this immensely popular mystery novel from which the soon-to-be released motion picture is based?

These and other significant issues will be explored on five Tuesdays from noon to 1 p.m. beginning on May 2nd and ending on May 30th in "Solving the DaVinci Code" led by Dr. Bob Smith.

Bob says:

"Having read The DaVinci Code is not necessary before participating in this class which will lead us into Bible study, early history of the church, investigation of Biblical characters such as the elusive Mary Magdalene, etc. However, if you've not yet read it and enjoy mysteries, I think you'll find this novel a good yarn. Why have so many people taken it to be much more than that? Come to this class and let's explore that together."

Word from the Pastor

Spring's a traditional time for budding romance. When I was courting Phoebe in high school and college (it took me seven years to "win her hand," as they used to say) the dating schedule in springtime was hot and heavy. I had no dating guideline to follow, and I did the best I could.

A best-seller The Rules (Warner Books), co-authored by Ellen Fein and Sherrie Schneider, runs upstream against much recent feminist thinking by recommending to women a "new approach" to dating.

Examples:

- Do not telephone a man who interests you.
- Never pick up even half the tab.
- Don't accept dates for the weekend after a certain point early in the week (even when you're dying to go).

This "new approach" doesn't sound too new to someone my age who dated back in the days when the initiative rested with the man. However, the cultural rules and strategies for interpersonal relationships do change from time to time.

Jesus suggested a rule for relationships that is timeless:

*"Here's a simple, rule-of-thumb guide for behavior:
Ask yourself what you want people to do for you,
Then grab the initiative and do it for them."*

(Matthew 7:12, New Testament in Contemporary English)

This avoids seeing people as objects to be manipulated or used. Of course, I'm not suggesting there's no place for flirting, playing hard to get, or keeping the mystery in dating. However in 2006, I'm resolving to make the respect and consideration of others suggested by Jesus a more central part of my lifestyle.

Thinking about new opportunities for springtime?
Maybe Matthew 7:12 offers and an attractive option.

Sincerely

Bob Smith

P.S. According to the Book of Genesis, Jacob waited seven years for Rachel. For Jacob and me, it was well worth the wait!

MEET & GREET

Our NEW Members

On Sunday, April 23rd, the Session received into communing membership and the congregation welcomed the following new members:

Linda and Gene Bell (by transfer from Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Macon, Georgia). Linda is a C.P.A. and Gene a retired physician. They moved here in June 2005. They have two daughters and a son.

Stan Bell (affiliate member from Bethany Presbyterian Church in Loves Park, IL). Stan, an ordained Presbyterian Elder, moved to our area earlier this year. His mother Dot also recently joined our church. Stan enjoys fishing, hunting, and camping.

Otie Bowden (by transfer from First Baptist Church of Akron, Ohio). Otie, a native of Arkansas, retired from the profession of executive search. He moved to Fernandina Beach in 1999. He has held leadership positions at the highest levels of another denomination and of Christian mission enterprises. Like many other members of our congregation, Otie enjoys golf.

Yvonne and Woody Brandon (by reaffirmation of faith). The Brandons built a home in our area in 2001 and moved permanently from Indiana in December of last year. Yvonne is a retired nurse and Woody owns a manufacturing business in Indiana. They enjoy genealogy and art collection.

Jane and Jack Dickison (by transfer from First Congregational Church of Milton, Mass.). Jack, a retired church administrator, and Jane, a retired teacher, moved to our community earlier this year. They have two daughters. They enjoy cycling.

Pat and Len Ermold (by reaffirmation of faith). After retirement, the Ermolds moved here from the state of Washington in 2003. Len has served as a church officer and Pat is a trained Stephen Minister. Natives of Pennsylvania, they enjoy travel, including visits to their children and grandchildren.

National Day of Prayer

The theme for the 2006 National Day of Prayer is "America, Honor God" and will be observed locally on May 4th, 2006 at Fort Clinch State Park.

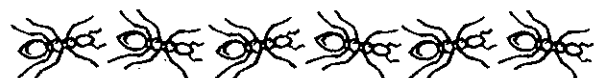

This year's event is free, and everyone is encouraged to join us from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m. at the Fort Clinch State Park beach access as we lift up prayers for local, county, state and national leaders. There is no need to sign up, simply come and be part of the National Day of Prayer. It is recommended that you bring personal lawn chairs and bug repellent due to the location of this year's event.

Church Family Camp
A great success!

The 94 church folk from FPC enjoyed a beautiful weekend (April 21st - 23rd) at Montgomery Camp and Conference Center. Thanks go to Susan King, Janine Cazell, Andi Flynn and all others who made this event such a success.

All activities made an unforgettable weekend of Christian restoration and friendship:

- the Friday night ice cream social
- the Saturday swimming, canoeing, hiking, volleyball, basketball, rockin', Square Dance, campfire singing, etc
- the Sunday worship by the lake led by Roger Martin and others.
